

Do not weaken the Do Not Call laws of those states who have laws stronger than that of the Fed Govt. In point of fact I feel that the laws should be stronger in that political entities and candidates should have to follow the Do Not Call lists. The recent primary election in NJ is a case in point as I received as many as 12 calls each evening.